COMMITTEE SEEKS PUBLIC SENTIMENT ON HIGHWAY BILLS

Hearing on Automobile Weight Tax and Gasoline Levy Set for March 28

MADISON, Wis., People of the state will have an opportunity to express themselves on proposed highway legislation next Wednesday, when a public hearing will be held on the highway committee bills providing for a new gasoline tax and a graduated license fee based upon weight, come up for hearing before the highway committee of the legislature.

These two measures, the application of which would raise $11,000,000 annually in Wisconsin from automobile owners, are both expected to meet strong opposition in their present form. The graduated license fee is drawn to bring a return of $8,000,000 each year, and the gasoline tax $3,000,000.

All automobile owners are directly affected by the legislation proposed by the legislative committee.

Neither of the bills to be considered has yet been introduced into the legislature because of the refusal of Senator George Standenmayer, chairman of the senate committee, to bring them in. It is expected that Senator Cushman, the new senate chairman, will introduce the bills early next week.

In burned the camphor gathering industry is entirely in the hands of natives and the foreigners have taken hold of the camphor. Camphor is taken from certain trees and is handled in pieces about the size and shape of the forearm. Before and during these expeditions the men observe certain customs which are religiously regarded. When preparing to go out they are uncannily silent. While they are away from home they consume only certain kinds of food and that in small quantities, and they talk in peculiar phrases which is known as the holy camphor language.

BIG FIGHT ON DRY ISSUE COMES UP IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 11

Sachtjen Bill Preventing Search of Homes on the Calendar for that Day

SENATE COMMITTEE PLANNING
BIG HEARING ON DRY BILLS

Nine Measures Referring to Prohibition Under Consideration

MADISON, Wis.—The principal wet and dry fight of the present legislative session in the assembly, will be staged April 11, according to agreement reached by leaders of the lower house.

At that time the Sachtjen bill providing for restriction of the search and seizure section of the Severson prohibition enforcement law, will be on the calendar for consideration. This measure has the solid backing of the wet and will be strongly opposed by the drys.

Proponents of the measure say that it is intended to protect home owners against unreasonable searching of prohibition agents. Those who oppose the bill say that it amounts to practical repeal of the prohibition enforcement statute by making it impossible to search dwellings where a large part of the illicit liquor is manufactured for sale.

Senate Plans Hearing

The senate committee on state affairs has set aside Thursday, March 29, as a field day for action on liquor bills before the upper house of the legislature. At that time the committee will hear nine bills, most of them aimed at liquor law enforcement, and all referring to prohibition.

First on the calendar is the Gertelman bill for complete repeal of the Severson prohibition enforcement statute. Then comes the Czerwinski bill to remove the search and seizure section of the Severson law in an effort to make enforcement less effective. The "black sack" bill to repeal the search and seizure section and to take away the appropriation from the prohibition department, follows.

Two bills by Senator Howard Teasdale, intended to make liquor law enforcement more stringent, take their place on the hearing schedule along with the other measures.

Asks Return of Beer

A memorial to congress by Senator Czerwinski asking return of light wines and beer is another of the wet proposals to receive consideration. In addition, a resolution by Senator Burke, asking congress to repeal the prohibition amendment to the constitution, is on the calendar with a resolution by Assemblyman Peterson, already adopted by the lower house, asking congress to amend the prohibition enforcement statute to permit a higher alcoholic content in non-intoxicating beverages.

These are all of the wet and dry measures now before the session. From the handful of measures the state affairs committee is expected to produce a bill of its own, calling for a referendum on the question of prohibition at the April 12, election.

With the senate committee con-

Louis, Mo., will celebrate his first solemn mass at 9:30 a. m. in Wednesday, April 4, at St. Rose convent church. Father Ritt will be celebrating a priest on April 2, by Bishop Fureh, at the Abbey church, Collegeville, Minn. Invitations have been sent to a number of La Crosse residents to attend the first solemn mass of the newly ordained priest.

SHEBOYGAN CIRCUS MAN IS ATTACKED BY BEAR

SHEBOYGAN, Wis.—Arvin Rademacher, an employee of the Lindemann Brothers' circus, which is in winter quarters here, is at the Sheboygan clinic recovering from wounds inflicted by a bear. William Lindemann, one of the owners, had just put the big bear through the routine and was returning it to the den, when the animal suddenly attacked Rademacher, knocking him down and lacerating his face. The bear began to worry the poor man, when Lindemann hit it over the head with an iron bar, knocking it unconscious.

PRINCE AGAIN FINED

FRIDEN. Because Prince Friedrich Wilhelm von Lippe, German nationalist leader, did not immediately produce his passport when ordered to do so, by the French soldiers who arrested him, a French court martial sentenced him to eight months imprisonment and fined him 500,000 marks. He was recently fined 7,000,000 marks on charges of sedition.

MOVIES

STRAND TODAY
Viola Dana's latest photoplay, "Crinoline and Romance," furnished abundant entertainment of the most absorbing kind to the large audience at the Strand theatre, where it was shown for the first time yesterday.
The splendid screen star has a role that is different from any she has hitherto attempted, but her versatility more than stands the demands of a difficult part. Genuine enthusiasm was shown, while the picture was presented, and Miss Dana's friends agree that it is her most interesting photoplay.

"Crinoline and Romance" is a characterization for the star which is totally different from any in which she has been seen.
Having a pretty girl seek protection from an amorous man in a public cafe; following her to a fashionable beach resort and subsequently being arrested for a theft he thought she had committed, were some of the experiences encountered by Ebert's heroine, who came to the Strand theatre on Sunday. The picture is filled to the brim with mystery, thrills and romance. Stuart Patton, the director, has packed it so full of excitement that the most "picture-wise" spectator is kept on the edge of his seat until the final scene.

CASINO TODAY

"The Ninety and Nine," Vitaphone's special production based on the famous melodrama by Rufus W. Morris, which will be shown at the Casino theatre today, has two separate and distinct angles, the biblical story of the lost sheep and the thrilling dash of the rescue train through the burning forest.
Vitaphone continued this idea in its advertising matter, practically all of which carries a picture of the locomotive and burning forest, but the original theme also has been introduced in the picture in its opening scenes, the biblical allegory of the Shepherd and his flock—the ninety and nine and the lost sheep.

"ADAM AND EVA"

The final showings of the Cosmopolitan production, "Adam and Eva," starring Marion Davies, will take place at the Rivoli theatre this evening. Miss Davies is at her best as a girl who keeps her father on edge by her utter disregard for the value of money. The uplift of the entire film is the result of a plan to curb this extravagance. T. Roy Barnes plays opposite the star.

RIVIERA TODAY

The Ray Ingram production of "Turn to the Right," now showing at the Riviera theatre, is clearing up more money as a motion picture than it did even its record-breaking success on the stage. And on the stage it made the fortunes of its producers, John Golden and Winchell Smith.
Less than a year ago they became friends, found themselves with a bank roll of about a million each and noting to do. They took John B. Hazard's scenario of "what he called "Like Mother, Made," Smith made it into a play and called it "Turn to the Right," and he and Golden produced it.

"THE LEOPARDESS"

Alice Brady's new Paramount picture, "The Leopardess," based on an unpublished novel by Katherine Newlin Burt, will be the feature attraction at the Rivoli theatre next Sunday. It was directed by Henry Koller, who produced "Israel" starring George Arliss, and who directed a picture with Madge Kennedy, "The Purple Highway." The story is one of the South seas with leopards, half-caste women and beach-combers. Miss Brady has a role that admirably suits her style of acting. She is seen as a half-caste girl whom the rich New York adventurer tries to tame as he tames a wild leopardess.

JOURNALISM SCHOOL STUDENTS TO EDIT WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS

Five Publications to be Taken Over for Week by Embryo Editors

MADISON, Wis.—Five Wisconsin weekly newspapers will be entirely edited and published by groups of students from the University of Wisconsin course in journalism during the week of April 4 to 12. The papers which will be taken over by the students are the Rice Lake Chrono-type, the Burlington Standard Democrat, the Algoma Record-Herald, the Prairie du Chien Courier, and the Darlington Republican-Journal.

The idea of putting students completely in charge of a newspaper was suggested to the department of journalism last year by H. E. Howe, editor of the Prairie du Chien Courier, who volunteered to turn over his paper. Two groups of students were sent to the paper two successive weeks who edited the paper according to their own ideas.

The experiment proved to be so successful that seven editors this year offered the students an opportunity to take over their papers only five of which could be accepted. The students who will make these field trips are members of the class in community newspapers. They will gather all the news, write the editorials, secure the advertising, and make up the paper. In fact they do all of the work connected with the publishing of the paper excepting the setting of the type and the running of the presses.

LUMBER CAMPS NOW BREAKING UP AFTER SUCCESSFUL SEASON

BIRCHWOOD, Wis.—The lumber camps in this state are breaking up after one of the most successful winters since the war. This is resulting in the releasing of thousands of men employed in the camps, who will now take up other employment.
The Arizona Panel company camp crews were abandoned about a week ago.
This company cut several million feet of lumber which consisted chiefly of hemlock. Millions of feet of timber were cut by other companies and although billions of feet of lumber will be sawed in the year 1923, it is predicted that there will be no over production.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT TO CURB "NAUGHTY" PLAYS

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.
—The council of ministers decided on Thursday to "take measures to end the wave of obscenity and offenses against morals which have been prevalent in certain theaters in Paris lat-ly," says an official communication.
The council, which was presided over by Premier Poincare, lasted three hours.

The condition to which the ministers took exception have been under the fire recently of a number of leading Parisian dramatic critics.

FEDERAL EXPERT PLANS

SURVEY OF CHILDREN
MADISON, Wis.—Miss Emma O.
Landberg, director of the social service division of the federal children's bureau, has begun a statistical study of dependent children in Wisconsin.
The results of placements in years past without adequate investigation or follow up work will be contrasted with the study of children now under care, the conditions under which they were received and their history under supervision.

OVER 1,000 TIMES HAS "FIRST YEAR" PLEASED HOUSES

With a record of more than one thousand consecutive performances to its credit, "The First Year," with Frank Craven and the original New York cast intact, will be sent to the La Crosse theatre Saturday matinee and night, March 31. It is no trifling matter to write freely on the subject of married life, and quite as difficult is the trick of writing entertainingly; but when a combination of the two is effected, as Frank Craven has done in this enormously amusing comedy, it is an achievement well worth recording. The cast includes Tim Murphy, Alice Owens, Lyster Chambers, James Treadwell, Jane Ellison, Leila Bennett, Mercutio Esmonde, Harry Leighton and George Wright, Jr.

VARIED BILL AT RIVOLI THEATRE BEGINS SUNDAY

A varied and well balanced bill of vaudeville acts will appear at the Rivoli theatre for the first half of the week, beginning with the matinee on Sunday. Miller, Packer and Selz, billed as "Grouch Killers" will offer their sure cure for the blues, and Sinclair and Gray will entertain with a few spectacular bicycle riding stunts.
Fox and Mack with their original song and dance creations, Johnny Small and the Small Sisters have a fifty song and dance act that is bound to please, while Maley and Singer will put over a comedy singing and talking act. Ed and May Tenney have an act entitled "Fun in a Playground."

was unconscious for half an hour.

Attention

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY YOUR FORD CAR NOW.

There is every indication of a great shortage of Ford cars this season.

The reason for this is plain and indisputable. The unprecedented demand during the winter months has taken the entire output of the Ford Plants working at full capacity.

Months which have heretofore been lowest in purchasing have equalled or exceeded the months of heaviest buying.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

It means just this—

Ford Dealers in many parts of the country are finding it necessary to specify future delivery dates on Ford Products because there are no reserve stocks from which to draw.

It indicates that the near-future demand will be far in excess of the number of Ford Cars that can possibly be built. And this means a greater shortage of Ford Cars than ever existed before.

These are facts which you are entitled to know.

If you contemplate the purchase of a Ford Car, Ford Truck or Fordson Tractor, place your order at once. Take advantage of our first opportunity to make delivery.

Come in today. Don't delay. Protect yourself against disappointment later on.

Have your car to enjoy during the time when motoring is most delightful.

A small deposit with your order is all that is necessary. You may then pay for your car on easy terms.
